

Nupqu

Request for Proposals: Board Director

Summary

Legal Name: Nupqu Resource Corporation (Nupqu)

Year Established: 2009

General Mandate: Nupqu supports clients in several industries with services such as:

- Forestry
- Environmental, Reclamation and Remediation
- Water Management
- Native Plant Nursery
- Health and Safety
- Archaeology and Cultural Resource Management
- Contract Management

With certified professionals providing quality services throughout the region Nupqu takes pride in their strong reputation.

Nupqu's Board of Directors is seeking proposals from individuals interested and qualified to be a Director on the Board for Nupqu.

Background

Nupqu provides professional land and resource management and the opportunity for industry and government to engage with a wholly owned Ktunaxa Business in the Ktunaxa Traditional Territory.

Our team of professionals, have a strong reputation of providing quality services to industries throughout the region. Nupqu's diverse work-force offers a broad range of certified experience and expertise while providing opportunities for professional and career development for people within the region.

Our Vision:

"A responsible, profitable corporation that contributes to our thriving Ktunaxa Nation economy."

Our Mission:

“As a leader in First Nation Business Development, Nupqu will achieve sustainable growth and profitability through ongoing capacity development and the provision of value-added professional services while adhering to a strong health and safety standard.”

Director Responsibilities

The Nupqu Board of Directors are required to provide direction on the following activities:

- Annual operational document development and implementation
- Reporting quarterly to KEL;
- Ensuring operations adhere to the KHLP Business Group Corporate Charter and Nupqu Development Limited Partnership Agreement;
- Nupqu mandate, mission & vision;
- Business plan development and implementation;
- Strategic plan development and implementation;
- Providing Nupqu President with strategic direction;
- Providing direction for business proposals; and
- Developing and implementing internal policies and procedures.

The Nupqu Board of Directors are required to meet at least quarterly, and more often as may be needed. The Board of Directors must be flexible and able to commit to additional requirements as necessary.

Director Requirements

To qualify as a Director of Nupqu, the individual must:

- Qualify as a Director under the legislation of the relevant jurisdiction;
- Be of good character, credibility and reputation; and
- Be business-minded with business experience.

Preferred Director Areas of Expertise

- Forestry
- Environmental consulting
- Business and Project Management
- Mining
- OH&S
- Have an understanding of Ktunaxa Interests

How to submit a proposal

Please submit a cover letter and resume to info@ktunaxaenterprises.ca.

Please reference Nupqu's website for further information about the business: www.nupqu.com.